Details

Written by Ludwig Hill

These photographs, taken by Wolfsong (John Maier) with captions by Ludwig Hill, show some of the rugged orienteering individuals who showed up for our Cat Mountain event in January 2011. If you see someone in these photos that you recognize but their name is not listed, please let me know.

It's just a wee bit nippy this early in the morning - hope the wind doesn't pick up! (Pictured: Ludwig Hill, unknown, Sue Wenberg, Dave Follette, Jeff Brodsky, and Cristina Luis)

*It sez here on the map, that's the last of the cactus area.
Yeah, right. (Pictured: Kimball Forest)*

*I think I can see the light at the end of my cap
bill! (Pictured: Don Fallis)*

I don't need no stinkin' leg protection! (Pictured: unknown)

This is such a peachy run - I'm all smiles! (Pictured: Jen Jolliff)

Um, how can I say this delicately -- I guess that's ONE way to get from 6 to 7, but I probably would have done it differently. (Pictured: Ludwig Hill and Cristina Luis)

Come on, come on, come on, beep for me. (Pictured: Dave Follette)

I'm just gonna wait while everyone else makes up their mind. (Pictured: Roy Parker, his youngest son, unknown, unknown and unknown)

I'm The Purple Flash to the rescue! (Pictured: Leif Lundquist)

Alright now. Let's begin this expedition! (Pictured: Gail Fowler and Gail Brodsky)

Just let me get you your change. We wouldn't want to forget that would we? (Pictured: Melissa Trout)
